RIGHTS OF APPEAL

Section 43(1) of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 provides that:

Where except in pursuance of a direction given by the Secretary of State,

- (a) an application for a modification of the conditions to the licence is rejected
- (b) the conditions to a licence are modified the applicant may appeal from the decision to the Secretary of State

Therefore if you feel aggrieved by the decision detailed on the attached notice you may obtain the appropriate form on which to give written notice of an appeal from: -

Environment Appeals Administration
The Planning Inspectorate
Room 4/19 – Eagle Wing
Temple Quay House
2 The Square
Temple Quay
Bristol
BS1 6PN

Tel: 0117 372 8235/8812

Fax: 0117 372 6093

This notice of appeal should be accompanied by the following information: a copy of the licence; a copy of any correspondence relevant to the appeal; a copy of any other document relevant to the appeal including, in particular, any relevant consent, determination, notice, planning permission, established use certificate or certificate of lawful use or development; and a statement indicating whether you wish the appeal to be in the form of a hearing or on the basis of written representations. You are also required to serve a copy of your notice of appeal, on the Environment Agency (at the address overleaf). You should appeal within 6 months of the date that this notice takes effect but the Secretary of State may allow notice of appeal to be given after the expiry of this time period.

You should note that whilst an appeal is pending the decision detailed on the attached notice is ineffective, except where a statement is included saying that in the opinion of the Agency the details on the notice are necessary for the purpose of preventing, or where not practicable, minimising pollution of the environment, or harm to human health.
